THE 1956 INDIANIAN

MONTPELIER HIGH SCHOOL

MONTPELIER, INDIANA

Scenes Familiar to Every Mont-

Where 18 crosses 303 at Main and Huntington, the center of Montpelier, stand the drugstore, where we go for our sodas and sundaes, and the post office, where we mail our valentines and love letters.

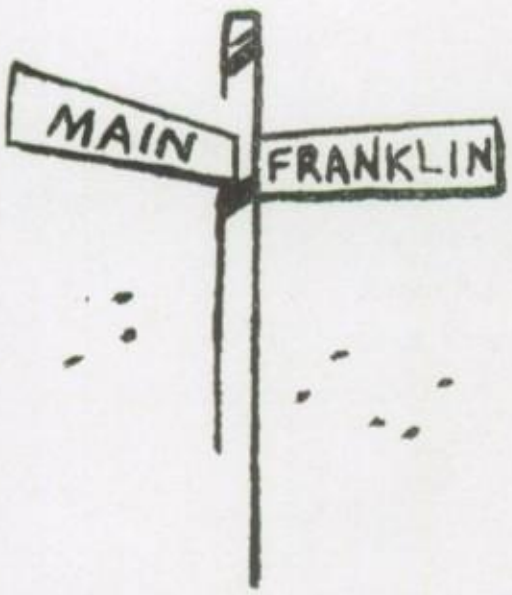
The children have a gay time sliding on the ice on East Monroe Street.

Pelier High School Boy and Girl

A familiar sight to all of us as we go to and from school is the Christian Church which stands on the corner, across the street from Bradshaw's Grocery Store. At Bradshaw's, we get our school supplies and part of the chewing gum we crack in our daily classes.

In this house, just off the school ground, live Dr. and Mrs. William T. Douglas and their two children. Dr. Douglas helps with the medical examinations and shots of the grade and high school students.

At The Corner of Main and Franklin



We're loyal to you M. H. S.
We're backing you too, M. H. S.
You're the best in the land
And for you we will stand
For we know you will win M. H. S.

Mr. Wilson

Mr Wilson is serving his third year as superintendent of the Montpelier schools, after having served as teacher, coach, or principal since 1923.

Mr. Wilson attended Ball State Teachers College and holds B. S. and M. A. degrees.

He is co-sponsor of the Senior Class and is business adviser for the Annual. He is also sponsor of the Discussion Club. His home town is Petroleum, and his favorite expression is, "You tell me. I don't know."

School Board

Each school board member is serving his first term on the new Montpelier-Harrison Township School Corporation, although three of them, Mr. Kelly, Dr. McKean, and Mr. Beymer, have served on previous boards.

Dr. McKean is president of the board; Mr. Johnson is treasurer, and Mr. Rogers is secretary. Mr. Beymer, our trustee, served in that capacity last year; and Mr. Kelly was also on the board last year.

The school owes a debt of gratitude to these men, who give of their time, their energy, and their experience for the betterment of our school.

Remembered Years

We have arrived! Yes, after spending eight years in the different grade school districts, the Class of '56 has finally become freshmen and citizens of the Montpelier High School City. To start off right as first year residents, we held our elections, choosing Clifford Rinker as our first mayor; Donna Pence, chief of police; Sharon Schwarzkopf, clerk; and as our first councilmen, Nancy Smith and Gary Clamme. Our sponsors, Mrs. Wallace and Mr. Thimlar, had a trying time in leading fifty-nine of us through our first year of residence. We presented our convocation on January 23.

Well, here we are citizens of the Sophomore Class in the city of M. H. S. This year we elected capable Frank Brackin as mayor; Clifford Rinker as chief of police; John Price as clerk; and Nancy Smith, Donna Pence, Gary Clamme, and Virgil Ledbetter as councilmen. This year fifty-eight students enrolled in our class, and to lead us was Mrs. Nunn and Mr. Brinkerhoff. On February 19 we presented our convocation, consisting of the different members of the class showing off their talent. Also in February we held a magazine drive, which turned out to be very successful.

Now we were rolling! We were now citizens of the Junior Class in the school city of M. H. S. In this, our third year of residence, we elected Max Hiser as mayor; Jerry Robbins as chief of police. Donna Pence as clerk, and Nancy Smith, Virgil Ledbetter, Donna Pence, and Gary Clamme as our councilmen. The sponsors for our third year were Miss Nelson, Miss Cline, and Mr. Forbes. We held our convocation: "Wide Awake Willie", a hilarious comedy, on January 21. Another successful comedy, our class play, "Atta Boy Walt", was presented April 1. The class then got together to work one night and all the next day to prepare the gym for the annual Junior-Senior banquet. Our theme for the banquet was "Three Coins in the Fountain", with a large fountain in the center of the gym. All this prepared us for our final big year.

Here it is, the "Big Year!" Yes, we have finally made it to the Senior Class of the Montpelier School Community. We were happy to receive as new citizens Joe Morris from Cambridge City and Kenneth Payne from Chester Center. This year we elected Neil Marshall as mayor; Jerry Robbins as chief of police; Joyce Hart as clerk; and Nancy Smith, Donna Pence, Virgil Ledbetter, and Clifford Rinker as councilmen. The class had an enrollment of fifty-three members, the largest in seventeen years for a senior class. The sponsors of the class were Miss Albertson, Miss Van Horn, and Mr. Wilson.

To start the year off right, we had Herb Grubb and his Melodaires for the "Annual" benefit show. Next we started the "Annual" drive on October 26. We sold 425 "Annuals", with Carol Reff, the champion salesman, selling thirty annuals. With this accomplished, we began to feel more confident of our abilities. We held our convocation on November 23, and presented our class play, "Rest Assured," on May 4.

Then on May 10 the Annuals arrived, and we had an autographing party to sign each others' Annuals. Baccalaureate exercises were held May 20, and we received our diplomas at commencement on May 22. Our commencement speaker was Clarence Dammon, registrar and director of admissions at Purdue University.

We have come to the end of our senior year. I don't think that anyone actually realized its meaning until we were about to receive our diplomas. And so, feeling somewhat sad and sentimental, we leave the Montpelier School City to face the crises of adult life in the same determined spirit with which we faced any school crisis that arose.

The Seniors March On

Forty-eight freshmen went to school
Under Mr. Wilson's rule.
Forty-eight children, fat and lean,
Forty-eight freshmen shy and green.
Everyone with all his grace,
Every day in proper place,
Books and pencils, every one;
Time for class work now had come.
Miss Albertson, good and kind,
Hunted those who lagged behind,
Taught us how to write and speak,
And gave courage to the meek.
And Miss Nelson, good at numbers,
Helped us figure and avoid too many blunders.
Miss Jean Rea in the library
Urged us to choose all the books we could carry.
But we freshmen didn't cry,
For we'd be sophies by and by;
We gathered up our courage then,
For the next year we'd be men.
Freshmen days are almost done;
Hardest part of the race is won.
Semester exams then to face,
And low grades may mean disgrace.
Sophomores, at last are we;
Happier now we couldn't be.
The one big thing we appreciate:
Plenty of freshmen to initiate.
On we went that second year.
On life's racetrack in high gear.
Where are those who lagged behind?
Where's the one who changed his mind?
Our Junior year was slipping past;
Seniors we, next year at last.
For the seniors we prepared
A banquet dinner, tasty 'n rare.
With the seniors we did rate;
They said our prom was really great.
We wished upon the wishing well
That next year, as Seniors, we'd ring the bell.
Then we worked as ne'er before
That when at last we'd closed the door,
We would feel that all this pain
And all our troubles were not in vain.
To you, the heirs of our estate,
We, the seniors, relegate
All the trophies that we took
And the right to make this book.
Always remember the Golden Rule;
(That is why you came to school.)
Be as good as you can be;
Treat yourself as you treat me."

Operetta

"Miss Starlight," a musical comedy, was presented by the Music Department, October 21. The cast of characters was: Franklin Sanderson, manager of the Sea Cliff Hotel, John Price; Bert Brown, the clerk, Claude Keller; Snapper, the bellboy, Bill Racer; Carlotta Beard, a guest, Carol Reff; Mrs. Van Dyke Beard, her mother, Betty Racer; Mrs. Rhoda Fleming, a wealthy woman, Linda Mae Hooks; Drew Crane, her nephew, Joe Morris; Flo Randolph, the public stenographer, Donna Burchard; Trixie Trimmer, the manicurist, Judy Hart; Miss Venue, "Miss Starlight", Betty Carnes; Rosetta, a guest, Lois Pethtel; Sadie Sutton, a village maiden, Sue Stukey; Mrs. Cora Sanderson, Franklin's mother, Carol Denton; and Creston Clarke, a financier, Paul Ely. There was also a chorus of servants and guests.

The Business staff consisted of stage manager, Carol Lautzenheiser; business manager, Sue Marshall; prompters, Mary Beth Buckmaster, Fred Reff and Marion Ueland; and accompanists, Judy Hiser, Cynthia Kelsay, and Nancy Roush. Mr. Horn was the director.

To Sea Cliff Hotel comes Drew Crane and his aunt. Drew must be married and settled into his father's pickle business by the time he is twenty-two. The only girl who attracts Drew is Flo Randolph, who, with her girl friend, Trixie, both wealthy socialities, have taken jobs at the hotel, incognito, to escape social conventions.

Mrs. Beard becomes anxious to make a match between Drew and Carlotta, her daughter, in order to bolster her own financial status.

Trixie falls in love with the hotel clerk, Bert Brown; and Drew falls for Flo even though she doesn't quite measure up to perfection. At this point, Miss Venus, the Goddess of Love and Beauty, appears. She adjusts many love affairs, even bringing back Mrs. Beard's first love, Creston Clarke. Flo, believing she has no chance to win Drew, prepares to return to Chicago. She reveals her identity to Drew, whose aunt immediately wishes to have Flo marry her nephew. Miss Venus also motivates a true romance between Carlotta and the young hotel manager. Drew finds perfection in Flo, for, as Miss Starlight had said: "The perfect person exists only through the eyes of love."

Pacers

Kenny Payne — Kenny, a transfer student from Chester Center, was the middle man of the Pacer offense. His hook shot and deadly jump shot made his 20-point per game average one of the highest in the Pacer history. Being a senior, Kenny will be greatly missed next year.

Jack Cain — Jack's fine one-handed push shot enabled him to hold down a starting position throughout the season. Since Jack is a junior, he will be back to help the Pacer cause next year.

Fred Reff — As this was Fred's first year on the varsity, he didn't see too much action. However, he showed great improvement toward the end of the season. Fred is a senior and will not be with the squad next year.

Don Schwarzkopf — Donnie, the only sophomore on the varsity, has shown great improvement and promises to be a threat to the opposition next year.

Dick Payne — Dick, a brother to Kenny, saw most of his action with the Ponies and at the sectional. Since Dick is a junior, he will be back with the Blue and Gold next year.

Bill Bales — Although most of Bill's efforts were put forth with the Ponies, he did see limited action with the Pacers and always gave his best. Bill will also be with the Pacers next year.

Carl Honaker — This was Carl's first year as Coach of the Pacers. His own experience as a player has enabled him to guide the Pacers to a very successful season. We hope that he will be back next year.

Pacers

Paul Ely — This is Paul's second year on the varsity. His fine spirit and will to win kept the Pacers' morale up throughout the year. Paul is also a senior.

Clifford Rinker — Feet - Feet provided a great share of the rebounding for the Pacers. He also was a very consistent scorer and could always be counted on in the clutch. This is Feet's second year on the squad; since he is a senior, he will not be with the squad next year.

Jerry Robbins — Jake — Jake is one of the few four letter men to ever graduate from M. H. S. Jake's ability to set up the Pacers' offense and his fine jump shot helped the Blue and Gold through many a rough night. Jake will be greatly missed by the squad next year.

John Price — This is John's third year with the Pacers. John's ability to come into a game at the crucial moment has helped to win many games for the Pacers this year. Since he is a senior, he will not be back next year.

Herschel Needler — This is Herschel's third year on the varsity. His determination to win ball games helped the Pacers come through the season with a fine record. Herschel is also a senior.

Neil Marshall — This has been Neil's first year on the varsity, but whenever he was called on, he could always be counted on to give his best. Neil is a senior and will not be with the squad next year.

Gary Overmeyer — Goat—This has been Goat's first year as manager of the Pacers. His fine smile and cheery personality have helped the boys' morale throughout the year. Goat is a junior and will be back next year to take care of the boys' equipment.

Ponies

First row: Rodney Black, Roger Falk, Charles Hartley, mgr., Ed Kershner, Bill Robbins.
Second row: Tom Noller, Dorsey Price, Raymond Coffield, Carl Honaker, coach; Gerald Baker, Dick Schwartzkopf, Randall Foy. DeWayne Grove was absent when the picture was taken.

Freshman Team

First row: Harold Myers, Roger Fishback, Steve Bloom, Ben Wilson, Mike Inman, Bill Robbins, Tom Shannon.
Second row: Rodney Black, Max Coffield, Don Kellogg, Dorsey Price, Carl Honaker, coach; Jerry Chapman, Bill Yadon, Ed Kershner, Dick Bales.

Junior High Colts

First row: Burton Brinkerhoff, coach; Ronnie Simpson, Jim Moyer, Dave Foy, Ronnie Everhart, Steve Schwarzkopf, Dee Schwarzkopf, Bill Elliott, Dick Conrad, mgr.
Second row: Howard Williams, Steve Ruble, Sonny Carnes, Hal Nestleroad, Jim Morris, Donnie Simpson, Larry Simmons, Russell Kinser, Marvin Heiny.

Although the Ponies started the season off rather disappointingly, they did an about-face toward the end of the season to win their last five games.

The Freshman saw a lot of action this year, for the first five boys dressed for the second team game most of the time.

Led by six foot three inch Dave Nestleroad, the Colts won one of two tourneys and turned in a fine season. They showed a tendency of scoring a lot of points as the 54 to 24 victory over Hartford City and the defeat of Jefferson 68 to 29 show.

Ten Years Hence

It is now June, 1966. Today the Class of '56 is having its annual picnic. The day is bright and sunny, with birds singing everywhere. Let's drop in on the picnic to see how things are going. But, first, a little background.

Tom Simmons, rich executive, with the help of Walter Scott and Bob Fitch, has bought Bluewater and the other stone quarry and has turned them into a resort called the Twin Lakes. Bill Kellogg, a turkey rancher, spends his summers there fishing. In winter Jim Myers rents Tom's cabin to ice fish. But let's return to the picnic.

There are Cliff Rinker and Rex Hiday, local farmers, talking to Herschel Needler, state trooper, and his wife, the former Sharon Schwarzkopf. Herschel seems to be giving Cliff a ticket for "flying" too low in his Cadillac. Looks as if Cliff is in need of lawyer Tom Mounsey or Max Hiser.

Over there fixing the lunch are the teachers, Mary Kelsay and Mrs. Neil Marshall, the former Carol Reff. Jerry Robbins and Neil are discussing basketball with John Price and Kenny Payne, coaches. Air Force officers, Ronnie Storms, Harold Evans, and Harold Parker have flown in for the picnic, landing on Tom Schwarzkopf's dairy ranch. With them is their machinist, Steve Malott. Dick Peck and Virgil Ledbetter, supermarket magistrates, are arguing with Bill Racer of Racer's Atomic Bakery over the price of bread.

There are several of the "old married folk" getting together to talk about old times: Mr. and Mrs. James D. Wert, the former Mary Ellen Pugh; Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Hummer, the former Wilma Terhune; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Winder, the former Betty Jo Quillen; Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Morris, the former Phyllis Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lee, the former Joyce Hart; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Chandler, the former Carol Moyer; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Borton, the former Sally Cook; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Connely, the former Helen Herring; and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Clamme, the former Donna Pence.

Joe Morris is gathering his band together for a few numbers. There's Donna Burchard, his clarinet player. Carol Chapman warms up on the piano, and Paul Ely beats a short tattoo on his drums. Next to Paul is John Price, the famous kettle drum player. Tom Mounsey is warming up on his Sousaphone, and Max Hiser is playing "Taps" on his trumpet. Tom Simmons strums his guitar, while Nancy Smith plays her saxophone. At Rosemary Davis' offer to sing request numbers, Cliff Rinker requests "If You Knew Suzie" and Bonnie Ramseyer requests "Moments to Remember," a hit song of ten years ago.

Frank Brackin, Richard Armstrong, and Fred Reff go for a spin around the lakes in Gerald Runkle and Joe Shannon's speed boat. Watching them so thrills Roberta Baker that she falls into the lake. Quick! Get a doctor! No doctor is present, but Nurse Kathryn Goble and her assistant, Delphia Fear, revive Roberta with artificial resperation while Carolyn Pearson takes snapshots of the incident and Tom Wilson writes his news story on the end sheet of a 1956 Indianian. Then Guy Cook quickly drives Tom to his news office.

The day draws to an end. The sun sets slowly on the picnickers as they gather their belongings together and depart to their homes. It has been a great day, June 8, 1966.
